Submissions

2025 marks Texas Architect's 75th year of publication. In honor of this milestone, we kickoff the year under a fresh magazine design. Project types of any kind may be submitted for consideration. The theme for each issue is intentionally broad and open to interpretation. We recommend that you consider how your project or article idea might align with an issue when crafting your submission. Pitches and supporting materials should be sent through the online submission portal.
